

ANTICIPATORY HOPE

As preached on Sunday, June 28th

Read: Psalm 13

1. The Psalms have been called “God’s toolbox of prayers.” Why do you think this is?
2. What is a prayer of lament? How many of the psalms in our Bible are laments? How can that be a help to us as followers of Christ?
3. As you look back to vv.1-2 how is the psalmist using honest communication in prayer? How free do you feel to be honest in your prayer life?
4. What transition takes place between v.2 and v.3? What is the psalmist asking for?
5. What transition takes place between v.4 and v.5? What has changed in the psalmist’s situation to bring about this transition?
6. In what ways is Psalm 13 a gift to us in 2020?
7. How can you begin to practice anticipatory hope even in the midst of struggles?
