

How NOT to Pray

As preached on Sunday, October 18th

Read: Matthew 6:5-8

1. Why is it tempting to try to impress others through our prayer in a public setting? What are we hoping to gain or prove?
2. Is there a way to measure yours or someone else's spirituality? Why or why not? If yes, how is it done?
3. How do you often struggle in losing the true purpose of prayer?
4. If you could sit down and have a personal conversation with God in physical form, what would you want to talk about?
