

RESURRECTION!

As preached on Sunday, March 31st

Read: Mark 16:1-8

1. As you read through Mark's account of the first Easter morning, what stands out to you? Are any of the details surprising?
2. If you had been there that morning, how do you think you would have responded?
3. Why do you think the angel adds "and Peter" when giving the women instructions?
4. How do you feel about how the original story ends in v.8?
5. It's been suggested that perhaps "alarmed", "trembling", and "bewildered" can be understood in a broader way. What do you think?
6. How can we be sure to hear and embrace this glorious resurrection news in the midst of a sometimes chaotic world?
