

Christ Lives in You!

Colossians 1:15-28

Discussion Questions

Gather:

Share a hobby or passion that others may not know about you.

Share a character quality that people say you have in common with your parents.

Share the last time in your life that something caused blood, sweat or tears.

Grow:

Read Colossians 1:15-28

Christ is the image of the Invisible God.

What do you see in Jesus that you need to be true of God?

Christ is the Creator.

What creative work do you want Christ to do in you?

Christ is the Reconciler.

Where in your life do you feel at odds with yourself?
What might it look like if Christ reconciled this?

Share a personal relationship you wish could be restored. Will you let Christ create peace?

Christ is the Sufferer.

What burden do you need help bearing? Christ wants to bear it with you, will you let him?

Go:

You are the image of the invisible Christ.

What is true of Christ, that you hope people will see in you?

You are creator.

What are you creating for our world?

You are reconciler.

How are you healing broken relationships?

You are sufferer.

What in our world does it hurt you to see?
What will you do about it?